

TYCA-SW 2021 Virtual Conference Schedule

In advance of the program, the TYCA-SW Co-Chairs would like to share the schedule for the 2021 Virtual Conference.

Registration is open until 10 October 2021, so come join us for our conversations about accentuating the positive. All registrants will receive a program with Zoom links before the conference.

Friday, 15 October

Time	Session Option 1 Moderators: Toni McMillen and Bruce Martin	Session Option 2 Moderator: S.R. Fish
10:00-10:50 AM	Expertise of Ignorance: Exploring Heritage Language Loss in the Composition Classroom  Jorge Garza, Bruce J. Martin, and David Puller; Lone Star College--North Harris	Lessons from First-Time Online Composition Teaching  Jessica Goodman, Oklahoma City Community College
11:00-11:50 AM	Writing for Mental Health Awareness  Brian Seemann and Kathryn Bowker, Aims Community College	Social Media and Big News: Fact or Opinion? Low Stakes Assignments for Understanding Credible Sources  Brienne Sardoni, Dallas College
12:00-1:00 PM	Keynote: Dr. Michal Brody Dr. Michal Brody's talk focuses on students struggle between "Standard Edited English" and all other Englishes they bring and use in their daily lives. How do we negotiate ideas about monolithic language and the flexible, adaptable languages we use every day?
1:10-2:00 PM	Equity in Online Composition and Rhetoric I  Heather Davis, Brandi Ford, Kristina Gutierrez, and Valerie Jones; Lone Star College—Houston North	When Everything Looks Like a Nail: Re-Examining the Syllabus for First-Year Writing  Bruce J. Martin, Lone Star College--North Harris

Friday, 22 October

Time	Session Option 1 Moderators: Toni McMillen and Allison Laubach Wright	Session Option 2 Moderator: S.R. Fish
10:00-10:50 AM	Moving toward Ungrading in First-Year Writing Allison Laubach Wright, Lone Star College--North Harris	The Very Model of Modern Media: Experimenting with Models of Media During COVID-19 to Maximize Student Engagement Online Christopher Krejci, Heather Chandler, Kim George, and Bev Van Note; Temple College
11:00-11:50 AM	Wrongful Conviction, Exonerations, and the Innocence Project: A Co-Requisite Approach to Demystifying American Government for Integrated Reading and Writing Students Based on a Criminal Justice Reform Theme Linda Kaposci and Rosalinda Valenzuela, Collin College	Shifting Online with a Pedagogy of Kindness Lane Ferrero Fletcher, Houston Community College
12:00-1:00 PM	Keynote: Tex Thompson Tex Thompson's talk focuses on place, play, and an overall sense of fun that can be found writing in the wilds based on her writing and teaching experiences.
1:10-2:00 PM	Executive Committee Meeting All TYCA-SW members are welcome to attend the business meeting.

Assignment Innovation Track Options

The material for the Assignment Innovations will be house on the TYCA-SW website and can be viewed at any time once the content goes live.

- Brianne Sardoni, Oklahoma City Community College: Social Media and Big News: Fact or Opinion? Low Stakes Assignments for Understanding Credible Sources
- Kimberly George, Temple College: Creating Change Portfolio End-of-Semester Project